CERTIFICATE OF ACCREDITATION

nr. 046 / 2006

for quality analytic laboratory nr. 1393

Health Institute based in Ostrava

Department of hygienic laboratories Ostrava

Partyzánské nám. 7, 702 00 Ostrava

Subject-matter of accreditation:

Chemical, microbiological and biological analysis of water, food, biological material, atmosphere, soil, waste, materials and products for evaluation of health and ecological safety or riskness. Measurement of physical factors of working and living environment. Sampling of water, atmosphere and sterilizers to the extent stated in the annex of the certificate.

Ing. Vladimíra Němcová acts in the name of the accredited quality analytic laboratory and Ing. Vladimíra Němcová, Ing. Zdeňka Dluhošová and Ing. Břetislav Janečka are responsible for correctness of protocols.

This certificate of accreditation is issued by the Czech Institute for Accreditation, benevolent association on the basis of evaluation of meeting accreditation criteria pursuant to and after finding that the quality analytic laboratory is competent to carry out the activities mentioned in the extent of the subject-matter of accreditation without prejudice and independently.

The recipient of the certificate is entitled to use, at its activity to the extent of the certificate and for the period of its validity, the mark “accredited quality analytic laboratory nr. 1393“ next to its name, provided that it observes all relevant rules related to the activity of the accredited quality analytic laboratory, including the rules issued by the Czech Institute for Accreditation, benevolent association.

If it is proved that the recipient of the certificate fails to fulfil the accreditation criteria decisive for its issue and the obligations conditioning the accreditation, the Czech Institute for Accreditation, benevolent association may suspend, cancel or change effectiveness of the certificate of accreditation.

The certificate expires: 30 June 2009 and replaces the certificate of accreditation nr. 268/2004 issued by CIA on 31 May 2004 in full.

In Prague, dated 2 February 2006
